

Grannys Apples: 365 days of fresh, insightful bits of wisdom from ages past

Never turn a writer loose in a house full of pens... or in my grandmothers case, a house with a typewriter. You never know what might get written down. Here is a collection of funny, witty thoughts inherited from one of my insightful ancestors. They are provided as daily doses spanning an entire year, to entertain, inspire, motivate, and provoke thought. There's more than enough each day to make one stop... and think... and laugh... and change.
